

Terri Williams Wants Seat On County Council

Former Webster mayor will run as Democrat

July 10, 2009

Former Webster Groves mayor Terri Williams has announced her candidacy for the 5th District seat on the St. Louis County Council.

The 5th District is currently represented by Democrat Barbara Fraser, who was elected to a four-year term in 2006. Fraser announced earlier this year that she will run for the District 24 State Senate seat. That seat is held by Democrat Joan Bray, who will leave office in the fall of 2010 because of term limits.

Williams kicked off her "Terri in 2010" campaign at the Webster Groves July 4 parade with a float entry and more than 50 marching supporters. A Democrat, Williams served as Webster Groves mayor from 1994-98.

Williams did not seek a second term as mayor. Following her term, she served as Executive Director of the Webster Groves-Shrewsbury Area Chamber of Commerce, and was appointed Citizens Advocate for St. Louis County Government by then County Executive Buzz Westfall. She was also Taxpayer's Advocate for St. Louis County.

The 5th District runs from Olivette and University City to Affton and Crestwood in the east-central part of the county.
